

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

In our opinion excellence in the practice of law requires a commitment to something more. The lawyers at McKool Smith are positive well-rounded corporate citizens. As a firm, we are rooted in the communities that we serve. We strive through our sponsorship of the Arts, development of continuing legal education programs, and service on behalf of individuals less fortunate than ourselves, to leave a positive mark on those with whom we come into contact.